SCHOOLS FORUM

- 7th April is confirmed as the date for the Schools Forum
- There is a possibility that the Schools Forum could cover the ‘Connaissance du Monde’ module, for example, by providing guidelines on how to run a research project. RM points out that all the information on evaluation might not be available until the end of April. The need to run a training meeting in May is discussed.

- Rob Cannings from Unifrog will also run session to present the platform and developments in English speaking higher education.
- The Dutch Research Group will also run a session focusing on applications to universities in the Netherlands and Greene’s tutoring company will speak about postbac options.
- AG says that the ‘Connaissance du Monde’ working groups are making good progress.

MEMBERSHIP

ELV indicates that 3 schools have not yet paid their subscriptions fees: Guadeloupe, Nancy and Orleans. JC to follow up.

AUDIOPI

JM introduces Audiopi History podcasts that will support teaching and independent study for students taking the OIB/BFI. They will be particularly good for the orals and ASIBA had paid for access for all member schools.
